Why You Should Use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Because it has an established reputation won by its good works.

Because it is most esteemed by those who have used it for many years, as occasion required, and are best acquainted with its good qualities.

Because it loosens and relieves a cold and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

Because it does not contain opium or any other narcotic.

Because it is within the reach of all. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.

MRS. ELIZABETH POLLY

Mrs. Elizabeth Polly, mother of Mr. E. A. Polly, died at the home of her son in this city Sunday night, aged 83 years.

Mrs. Polly was the widow of Mr. Harvey Polly, and came to Bellevue from Connecticut with her family many years ago. Later, she came to Ocala with her son, and made her home here with him. Advanced age kept her from mingling much with the life of the city, but she was respected and loved by all who knew her.

The remains, accompanied by her sorrowing relatives, were taken to Bellevue for interment. McIver & MacKay had charge of the arrangements.

LITTLE GEM OF A CALENDAR

The Star is indebted to the Ocala Ice & Packing company for a little gem of a calendar, illustrated with a pretty picture of Lake Placid in the Adirondacks. The only fault we find with it is that it is too pretty for our duty, grimy sanctum.

OCALA SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Mrs. Graham Entertained for Charming Visitors

The initial social affair of the week was a beautiful rook party given this afternoon by Mrs. John Graham at her Fort King avenue home, honoring her cousin, Mrs. Allison Wartmann, of Citra, and her two Yuletide guests, Miss Flora May Bridwell, of Malvern, Ark.; Miss Alma Buchanan, of Stamps, Ark. and Miss Mabel Meek of Warren, Ark. For the occasion Mrs. Graham's home was garlanded in the Christmas decoration, the rooms opening en suite forming a pretty background for the seven tables which were placed for the games.

Mrs. E. L. Carney received at the front door and Mrs. J. Harry Walters invited the ladies to the music room where the hostess and honorees received most informally. Mrs. Wartmann, a bride of last January, has won for herself a host of admiring friends and the guests this afternoon welcomed the opportunity to be with her and to meet her house guests who are vivacious and charming young ladies. Also with the hostess was another attractive visitor, Miss Ethel Beasley of Atlanta, who is being warmly welcomed on this, her second visit to Ocala.

In the reception hall punch was served by Misses Ethel Haycraft and Cecile Downs. Mrs. Walter Hood asked the guests to the punch bowl and Mrs. A. C. Cobb assisted them in finding their places at the tables. Scores were kept on pretty Christmas tallies and for the greatest number of progressions a silver picture frame was awarded.

A luncheon course of chicken salad, wafers, pickles, coffee and fruit cake was served.

Enjoying the hospitality of the hostess besides the honorees and those assisting were Mrs. W. K. Zawadzki Jr., Mrs. E. G. Peek, Mrs. W. K. Lane, Mrs. C. H. Lloyd, Mrs. Harvey Clark, Mrs. L. N. Green, Mrs. G. C. Shephard, Mrs. H. F. Watt, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. W. S. Hillands, Misses Mary and Anna McDowell, Virginia Sistrunk, Kathleen Jackson, Caroline Harriss, Nellie Gottlieb, Ethel Crosby, Marguerite Porter, Irma Blake and Annie Atkinson. At 5:30 o'clock several young men called to meet the honorees and take lunch with the players.

Gaieties for the Week

The past week was full of many interesting events, each day being marked by one or more affairs, formal and informal. This round of gaiety will continue throughout the present week and ample diversion will be afforded the college and school set, the visitors, the different society sets, in the various club affairs and the series of private parties which are to be given.

This evening at the Woman's Club building the Jingo Club will entertain with a dance to which a large number of friends including the eight o'clock dancing club have been invited. The affair will be elaborate.

The Tuesday auction club will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow with Miss Mary McDowell and the weekly meeting of the young ladies' auction club will be held New Year's afternoon with Miss Annie Davis as hostess. Tomorrow evening from 5 to 8, Miss Musie Bullock will give an informal dance for her guests, Misses Sophie Burkhim and Lorayne Beville. At 8 o'clock Miss Caroline Harriss will entertain the "A" club and a few special friends at an informal dance, it being the regular meeting of the club.

The largest event of the latter part of the week will be the New Year's dance Friday evening at the Woman's Club building given by the eight o'clock dancing club. The concluding event of the week's gaieties will be the leap year dance Saturday at which the "A" club will entertain at the club house of the Ocala Country Club.

Friday afternoon Mrs. G. W. Martin will give a party for her Sunday school class. This evening Mrs. R. S. Hall will be hostess to a theater party, honoring her niece, Miss Lydia McDougal. One of the most elaborate events will be a 6 o'clock dinner given by Mrs. Maude Horn. A number of other affairs will be planned during the week.

Rev. R. A. Wood of Umatilla occupied the pulpit for the morning service yesterday at the Presbyterian church, delivering a fine sermon to a large congregation. The choir sang a specially prepared anthem and Miss Cecile Downs rendered a beautiful solo.

Mr. Raymond Bullock of Jacksonville spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bullock.

Misses Rainford and Eva Lee Glass will spend a portion of the holidays with their father, Rev. J. G. Glass at their orange grove on Orange Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis and son and Miss Willis were visitors Christmas, motoring up from Weirsdale.

The Children's Home Society OF FLORIDA

"Florida's Greatest Charity"

This society has provided for during the year just closing over Eight Hundred Orphan Children of Florida. These helpless, homeless and friendless little ones have been cared for just as lovingly and with every attention that they would have in their own homes, and most of them have been placed in permanent homes of their own with their foster parents.

To carry on this great work, which the Star considers one of the most noble works of the state, has cost a great deal of money and the society is short several thousand dollars. The society is very anxious to close the year out of debt.

Won't you send some money to the treasurer—whatever you can spare, from 25 cents up? Won't you do it now? Better still, won't you write the society and tell it that you will pay so much a year, payable quarterly, and send the first quarterly payment with your letter?

One of the handsome little books, issued each year, containing a full report of the society's accomplishments will be mailed you if you write for it.

You who have of this world's goods, send a small portion of it to those who have not. This space is not paid for by the society. It is a part of the Star's aid to this noble work.

Send all remittances to
